PLAINTIFF'S AMENDED
RESPONSES &
OBJECTIONS TO
DEFENDANTS' FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES,

ECF Case

Defendants.

-----X

Plaintiff LUIS ANTONIO ORTIZ OCHOA ("Plaintiff"), by and through the undersigned counsel, hereby responds to Defendants' (the "Defendants") First Set of Interrogatories in accordance with the numbered Responses and Objections below ("Responses").

SPECIFIC RESPONSES & OBJECTIONS TO INTERROGATORIES

1. Describe in reasonable detail the nature and extent of all work performed while employed by Defendants.

Response to Interrogatory No. 1

Plaintiff objects to this interrogatory because it calls for information that is in the possession of the Defendants. Defendants are former employers of the Plaintiff and routinely observed him going about his job duties during the course of this employment.

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objection, Plaintiff states that he would prepare foods such as salads and smoothies, receive and stock shelves with inventory, and clean the floors and kitchen.

2. Identify each type of compensation, reimbursement, or benefits you were offered or received during your employment with Defendants, including but not limited to salary, pay increases, bonuses, stock options, retirement plan participation, insurance coverage, tuition reimbursement, paid time off, and reimbursement of business expenses.

Response to Interrogatory No. 2

Plaintiff objects to this interrogatory because it calls for information that is in the possession of the Defendants, and statutorily required to be maintained by the Defendants.

Plaintiff objects to this request to the extent that it seeks information that may be ascertained from the business records of Defendants, and the burden of ascertaining such information is substantially the same, or greater for Plaintiff than it is for Defendants. As set forth in the Complaint, ¶¶ 38, 60, Defendants paid the Plaintiff cash and did not provide him with any sort of wage statement or pay stub memorializing his compensation. Due to this failure on the part of Defendants, Plaintiff must now rely on his best memory, whereas Defendants would ordinarily be expected to maintain business and bank records which would reflect any compensation offered to Plaintiff during his employment.

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Plaintiff states that he received an hourly wage of $12 per hour to start and later received $13 per hour. He received no compensation from Defendants besides his hourly wage.

3. Describe in reasonable detail your job duties and responsibilities during your employment with Defendants.

Response to Interrogatory No. 3

Plaintiff objects to this interrogatory to the extent that it calls for information that is in the possession of the Defendants. Plaintiff further objects to this request in that it seeks information that may be ascertained from the business records of Defendants, and the burden of ascertaining such information is substantially the same, or greater for Plaintiff than it is for Defendants. Defendants were the Plaintiffs' employers and would observe him going about his duties during the course of his employment and are in as good a position as Plaintiff to know the duties of the job they hired him for.

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Plaintiff states that he was hired to be a deli man where his duties were to be taking client orders and preparing food. He was later made to clean, make salads and smoothies, and to stock inventory.

4. Describe any request, demand, or complaint you made to Defendants, prior to filing this lawsuit, about your employment with Defendants, including but not limited to, your salary or other compensation, deductions from your pay, job title, duties or responsibilities, hours of work, alleged overtime hours, and fringe benefits, and each response from Defendants, whether oral or in writing.

Response to Interrogatory No. 4

Plaintiff objects to this interrogatory in that it calls for information that is in the possession of the Defendants. Defendants in this Interrogatory seek information that they already have, due to the Defendants by necessity being the recipient of any such complaint and the source of any such response.

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objection, Plaintiff states that he does not recall making any such complaint to the Defendants.

5. Describe in detail the locations where you performed the majority of your work while employed by Defendants.

Response to Interrogatory No. 5

Plaintiff objects to this interrogatory in that it calls for information that is in the possession of the Defendants. Plaintiff objects to this request in that it seeks information that may be ascertained from the business records of Defendants, and the burden of ascertaining such information is substantially the same, or greater for Plaintiff than it is for Defendants. As previously stated, Plaintiff worked for Defendants in their place of business; they are in the same or better position to know where that place of business is located or to be in possession of documents such as leases, licenses, and delivery records which indicate said location.

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Plaintiff states that he performed the majority of his work for Defendants in the deli located at 1461 5th Ave., New York, NY 10035.

6. Identify each person from whom you received any statement, whether oral or written, at any time during your employment with Defendants, relating to the allegations in the Complaint.

Response to Interrogatory No. 6

Plaintiff identifies Defendants.

7. For each workweek that you claim you worked more than 40 hours and for which you were not properly compensated under the Fair Labor Standards Act, state the precise number of hours you claim you worked. For each week for which you cannot give a precise number, state why you are not able to do so. Your answer should be organized by providing responsive information for each separate workweek

Response to Interrogatory No. 7

Plaintiff objects to this interrogatory in that it calls for information that is in the possession of the Defendants. Under New York and Federal law, the burden is on employers to maintain wage and hour records. Moreover, it is the employers' burden to give to their employees' wage statements with each payment of wages memorializing, inter alia, the actual hours they worked. Because Defendant did not tender such wage statements (see Complaint ¶ 60), the Plaintiff is in a worse position to produce this information to Defendants than Defendants are to find it themselves within the records they are statutorily required to maintain.

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Plaintiff states that he is unable to provide a specific number of hours worked for each week of his employment because Defendant failed to provide him with wage statements, time sheets, or any other document memorializing these hours. As such, Plaintiff relies on his best memories to approximate the number of hours he worked as set forth in responses to Interrogatories 6 through 8 of the Defendants' Second Set of Interrogatories.

8. Identify every lawsuit, arbitration proceeding, or administrative hearing, other than this case, that you have filed against any of your employers, or that any of your employers has filed against you, at any time.

Response to Interrogatory No. 8

Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory in that it seeks information that does not relate to the subject matter of the instant case.

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing Specific Objections and General Objections, Plaintiff identifies:

- Ortiz Ochoa et al v. Prestige Café and Deli Corp. et al, SDNY no. 20-cv-4462
- Hernandez Ramirez et al v. Marketplace 41 Inc. et al, SDNY no. 18-cv-10498
- Ortiz Ochoa et al v. Red Hook Gourmet Deli et al, EDNY no. 17-cv-7095

9. Identify each type or kind of damages or relief you are claiming in this action, including the exact monetary amount you believe you are entitled to in connection with your claims and how that amount was calculated.

Response to Interrogatory No. 9

Plaintiff refers to the annexed Damages Calculations.

10. Describe all efforts you have made to find employment at any time between August 2017 to present, and the results of these efforts.

Response to Interrogatory No. 10

Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory in that it seeks information that does not relate to the matter at hand. No allegations exist in the Complaint nor in the Answer that could be clarified, verified, or rebutted by the nature of the Plaintiff's job search or lack thereof after the termination of his employment with Defendants.

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing Specific Objections and General Objections, Plaintiff states that he engaged the use of a job agency in order to find another job.
